

Get Real!

A Mother/Daughter Conference

Removing the Mask, Revealing the Truth

Dear Promotional Partner ~

What you are willing to do will impact lives for the Kingdom of God and we are so excited you have joined us to reach mothers and daughters for truth that leads to abundant life!

You are our best promoter! Your influence with others and belief in what we are doing will speak volumes over any website, brochure or commercial. Personal invitations and recommendations from those you know is crucial in a world where everyone is vying for our time and our resources. We are filled with gratitude for your willingness to support us and promote this conference. Thank you!

Get Real! is very excited to be coming back and we are committed to being bolder and dealing more directly with the seriousness of the issues mothers and daughters face. When mothers and daughters are facing these issues in unity with Christ and each other; empty promises that the world offers are seen for what they are, sinful choices that lead to destruction are avoided, and mothers and daughters can build lasting legacies and memories that infuse abundant life in Christ. Together, we can change the tide and bring freshness and hope to hearts that desperately desire it.

We get teenagers, and we understand they are not looking for a day of fluff and feeling good stuff. Today's teenagers want to be dealt with honestly and directly. In a world of texting and Facebook, they want the facts. We will not shock them with what they are dealing with, they already see and many times may wonder if we are bold enough to really enter into their world. Well, during this conference, we will enter into their world, and the world of motherhood, and encourage these mothers and daughters to remove the masks they hide behind and allow the beautiful girls beneath to be revealed.

Once the masks are removed may our mothers and daughters be encouraged to embrace one another and face the world with a biblical perspective, be committed to embracing the truth of Christ and live a life of that proclaims it to others.

Enclosed you will find brochures and posters to promote this exhilarating event! If you have any questions or need additional brochures, please visit our website at www.girlsembracingtruth.org or call (815)382-4841. We are here to help you and work with you. May God give you glimpses of the blessings and fruit that will be poured forth as we continue to commit this entire conference to Him.

Again, thank you so much for partnering with us in this fruitful mission to bring hope, faith and love to mothers and daughters ~ to change the family one relationship at a time.

Embracing Truth ~ Revealing Life,
